

090611 48" Basic club length ruler

This 48" ruler that measures the true, accurate playing length of finished golf clubs. Use it by placing the ruler along the back of the shaft with the club at address. Then read the length directly at the grip cap marker. Handy scale features recommended men's and ladies standard club lengths for easy reference.

Floor to grip cap measurement with industry standard club length scale