

Iron Lie & Loft Measuring Jig

The Lie & Loft Measuring Jig secures clubheads in the address position so that lie and loft can be measured with the provided protractor. Hosel offset and face progression can also be measured with ease by referencing the shaft centreline and leading edge of the club over a grid. This gauge is best suited for irons and putters.

